The Feast of Christ the King

"When did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?' And the king will say to them in reply, 'Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers of mine, you did for me.'"

Mt 25:38-40

Reading Reflection

How different our modern notions of royal leadership are from the biblical understanding of kingship. In the Hebrew Bible, the king is the one responsible for the whole people. He is the Lord's anointed and holds sovereignty in the name of the Lord. The king is to rule justly and to judge righteously for the land's afflicted. He is not to use his position for his own aggrandizement or profit. When the king neglects the widows and orphans and fails to protect the downtrodden then God's just punishment is meted out to the king. We see this again and again in the prophetic books of the Old Testament and in the theology that is present in the Books of Kings.

Jesus is the fulfillment of biblical kingship. He is the king par excellence who fulfills completely the duties and responsibilities of the king. But there is the twist provided by today's Gospel: the duties are not those of Jesus alone. All who are baptized in his name, who have been anointed as members of the priestly, prophetic, and royal people of God, have the same responsibilities as the king. We are to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, and welcome the stranger. All of the royal duties are also ours.

Stewardship

When the Son of Man comes in glory, may we be among those who have fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and clothed the naked. For Jesus tells us clearly that it is those who have demonstrated good stewardship by sharing their gifts with the less fortunate who will receive God's blessing and inherit the kingdom.

A Family Perspective

Families feed the hungry, give drinks to thirsty toddlers and welcome strangers and even estranged relatives into our homes. We clothe children and visit family members who are sick and imprisoned. The routine actions of family life are religious and priestly for we make Christ present in what we do.

Baptism Class

A Baptism Class will be held in the Parish Center

Tuesday ~ December 13 ~ 6:30 PM

Couples who are expecting or already have a child need to attend the Baptism class that the church offers before scheduling your child's Baptism. This is a one evening class, and is offered the second Tuesday of every month. We also invite the godparents, if they live locally, to come with the parents. Please call the Parish Office to register for this class.

Turkeys for the Food Pantry

As the Holidays are approaching fast we need to start planning for the baskets to be given out. When you are shopping for a turkey and when the sales are on if you could be generous to pick up an extra turkey for the food pantry it would be very much appreciated. As the demand continues to grow with the families struggling this would be a great help.

If you would like to donate a turkey, please contact Kathy Falso in the Human Development Office at 487-0459.

Fall Festival Thank You!

Thank you to all who helped out with our Fall Festival on October 30. Our CYO members from St. Cecilia and Our Lady of Peace worked together to put on a fun carnival for our parish and village families. We thank all our teens, all our adult chaperones and all those bakers who baked festive treats for our young ones. We congratulate our costume contest winners. Be sure to check out the photos at www.stcecilias.com.
