Reading Reflection

For seven seasons the Discovery Channel's highly rated show Deadliest Catch has wowed viewers with the real life tales of extreme fishermen in the Bering Sea off the coast of Alaska. They are after crab, with hopes for a big payday if they're successful. But the challenges of weather, luck, and crew can leave a captain without a large enough catch and finally without a job. Viewers can watch from the comfort of their homes, settled back in an easy chair while a crew fights ice, high seas, equipment failure, and frayed nerves. What is entertainment for those watching the television is daily life on the boat for those who work at sea.

In the Gospel today, Jesus meets up with some fishermen. Simon and Andrew, James and John were casting their nets, probably not very far from shore. While the Sea of Galilee cannot compare to the Bering Sea, we know from the Gospels that storms can be violent on that body of water as well. Certainly at the time of Jesus fishing was as dangerous a job as it is today. So when Jesus called the two sets of brothers to follow him, were they looking for a safer job?

Unlikely! Fishing for men and women is a lot more difficult than fishing for fish. The disciples answered the call to follow Jesus. It is a call that he continues to issue today. Whether in the priesthood, the religious life, the married state, or the committed single life, Jesus is asking people to follow him, not in a job, but in a way of life. Just as the crew of a boat on the Bering Sea doesn't punch out after eight hours, the life of a Christian is more than a full-time job. Following Jesus forms the basis for our lives. We do it all day, every day. That is the call he gives.

Daily Prayer for Life

Heavenly Father, as the author of life, touch with compassion the hearts of those women and men who, with your help, have conceived human life and now think of abortion, not parenthood. Help them to understand that their newly created child and all children are made in your image and likeness, made for eternal life.

Dispel their fears and helplessness and give them true and generous hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a parent alone can give. And when your children turn away from you through abortion, penetrate their hearts to seek your loving forgiveness and healing power.

Finally, Lord, soften the hearts of the abortionists, and enlighten all elected officials to accept your loving grace and to recognize and protect the inviolability and sanctity of all human life from conception to natural death. Amen.

Celebrate Your Call

The prophet Samuel was having difficulty hearing the voice of God calling him, and required the aid of another person to determine that the Lord was speaking to him. In the same way, those who are being formed for ministry or religious life need the aid of a spiritual director to discern if he or she is called to this lifestyle. If you think that God may be calling you, please contact Father O'Connor at 470-1468, and ask him to point you to a spiritual director.

A Family Perspective

It must have been difficult for Zebedee to watch his sons walk away and follow Jesus. It was the end of "Zebedee and Sons Fishing, Inc." Our children were never ours. They are only on loan to us. We raise them to let them go.

The Third Option

"Practicing Forgiveness and Repair"

Come learn a step-by-step way to heal the hurts. Sponsored by The Third Option, a program to build better marriages. We meet at Holy Cross Church, 4112 E. Genesee St., Dewitt

Sunday ~ January 22 ~ 7:00 - 9:00 PM

Walk-ins welcome. For more information call 472-6728.

Branch Out and Grow

Branch Out and Grow, a support group for separated and divorced, will meet at Bishop Ludden High School, 815 Fay Rd., Syracuse

Wednesday ~ February 1 ~ 7:00 - 8:30 PM

We will be showing a meditative video, "The Road to Healing" by DivorceCare, with a discussion to follow. All are welcome. For more information please call 472-6754 ext.5.

Stewardship

There is a certain urgency in today's Gospel as Jesus calls His first disciples, Andrew and Simon, James and John. Each one follows Jesus immediately and unhesitatingly, abandoning nets, boats, father, and fellow workers. To what is Jesus calling me at this moment, in these circumstances? What will I need to abandon in order to follow Him?

Called

I'm called too

God gently calls us every day:

Why should we then our bliss delay?

He calls to heaven and endless light;

Why should we love the dreary night?

Praise, Lord, to You for the apostle's call,

At which they rose and left their all;

You, Lord, even now are calling me;

I will leave all, and follow Thee.

W W How

Jesus, the Great Divide

Have you surrendered your finances to Christ, but not your inward greed that is at the base of wanting more all the time? Have you surrendered your marriage to Christ, but not offered your heart to be totally transformed by Him until you are living as a servant to your spouse? Have you surrendered an hour on Sunday morning to come to church, but keep the rest of the week for your own pursuits? Life is a series of choices, but no other choice has the eternal consequences of this call to follow Him with your whole heart, your whole soul, and your whole mind. Do you just want to be a fisherman the rest of your life or do you want to be a fisher of men?

Parish Membership

It is really important to be formally registered in a parish, whether or not one wishes to receive and use envelopes. We wish to keep our parish census as accurate as possible but we can do that only when people formally register. This is helpful relative to religious education and to those times when people need letters from the parish attesting to parish registration. For example, if you wish to be a sponsor at baptism or confirmation at another parish, that parish needs a letter from us verifying you are a registered and supporting member of the parish, and a suitable person to assume the role of being a sponsor.

If you haven't registered (or if you are not sure) you can fill out the coupon, clip it and put it in the collection basket. You can also use the form to update your information.
